Malster and Echodale Capture Their Respective Races in Sloppy Going.

ONLY TWO FAVORITES WIN

Eill Knight, at Odds On, Gets His Race From Matt Wadicigh by a Narrow Margin.

In spite of a muddy track, which caused wholesale withdrawals in every race, favor-ites had a good day at the Fair Grounds yesterday, two prenounced first choices finning, while the two contenders sharing favoritism finished first and second in the feature race of the day. This latter event was won by Malster from Santa Ventura

Seven starters appeared for this event. Same Ventura was made the opening choice and was held at 2 to 1, with Melster next in demand. The latter, under the best play, went down in the betting, however, and closed an equal choice with the Holtgrewe

Off to a good start, Ventura jumped to the lead and praceeded to set the pare, as usual, the mud appearing to affect her but little. Kindred, top weight in the field, got off well, but for some reason was allowed to drop back. Ventura led the way until the stretch turn, with Maister and Kindred next in order, Kaffir trailing along several lengths to the rear.

In the run home Malster moved up abruptly and seemed to have the race won handly a furlong out. Wainwright got to work on Venturn, however, and she responded well, drawing away for an instant ind lending to the last seventy yards. Here Maister, well ridden by Higgins, came again vicocousty, and won rather eleverly.

Kindred has slightly the longer nose of the two and got the verdiet. generally shown the greatest fondness for generally shown the greatest fondness for the identical going which prevailed yesterday, and but recently ran a good race on a similar track, winning easily. Yesterday, with Bell apparently taking a nap in the course of the race, he rorfeited his good position, secured at the start, and dropped back out of it.

Kaffir was hustled vigorously enough in the stretch and made up enough ground to justify the belief that he could have been a very close contender at the end had his boy rome to work earlier. Kaffir however, 20th a property and had been a winning of the course of the rear at the end. Mistic made every post rome to work earlier. Kaffir however, 20th Echodale and Bill Knight were the first choices in their respective races and each landed the money. Echodale was in at a greater distance than he has yet covered at the local track but was held at even money. This price was ruised to 7 to 5 at just time. Echodale simply galloped the first seven turlougs, and went the rest after being shaken up a trifle in the last sixbeing shaken up a triffe in the last sixteenth.

While winning cleverly enough, he was straight at the end and Leonid, who finished with cons decable determination, was a close second.

In the five furlong 2-year-old event, Bill Enight was made a top-heavy first choice, his opening price being 3 to 5, and his closing odds in the same neighborhood. Matt Wadleigh, admitted to be the contender, was 2 to 1 and the others at any old price. The race resuited according to the order of favoritism. Enight was but it was after the hardes; kind of a straigele with Wadleigh. The latter gelding fraced with the favorite from the start, seemed to shake him off for an instant at the head of the stretch, was leading by a half length at the paddock, and then settled down to a hard-tooght finish. Knight won with Bell whipping hard, while Wadleigh was being fidden for all that was in him. Knight had Scrofula appeared on the head of my little grandchild when only 18 months old, and spread rapidly over her body. The disease next attacked the eyes and we feared she would lose her sight. Eminent physicians were consulted, but could do nothing to relieve the little innocent. It was then that we decided to try S. S. That medicine at once made a speedy and complete cure. HAMBURG BELLE WON STAKE.

Galloped Her Field to a Standstill and Came Home Alone. Came Home Alone.

New York, June 22—By her victory in the Rosebuds Stakes for 2-year-olds over the inst five furlongs of the Futurity course at Sheepshead Bay to-day, Hamburg Belle again showed that she is a high-class filly. The daughter of Hamburg-Isia picked up 120 pounds and gave away fifteen pounds to each of the other starters, except Oceantide, whom she was meeting on even terms. Hamburg Belle galloped her field to a standstill in half a mile, and won eased up by two lengths. She ran the distance in 59 4-5, remarkately good time considering the slow track. Five favorites won. # WASHINGTON PARK ORDERS ARNOLD AWAY

Notifies Former Head of Get-Rich-Quick Turf Company That He Is Not Wanted.

HE RETURNS TO RACE COURSE.

Pinkerton Detectives Quietly Remove Him From Grounds and Admonish Him That He Must Never Return.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Chicago, June 22.-E J. Arnold, head of the defunct "get-rich-quick" concern which bore his name, was ordered off the grounds of the Washington Park race course to-day and notified that his presence there in future would not be tolerated. The management of the club objects to Arnold's patronage on account of the notoriety he acquired early in the year, when the concern which here his name went to the wall under malodorous circumstances. As soon as Arnold had surrendered in St. Louis and had given bond, after having been a fugitive for weeks, he came to Chiago and attended the Derby Saturday. One of his first performances there was to walk boldly past the judges' stand. He was promptly ordered to make himself scarce. To-day he appeared in the paddock, and Pinkerton men were given instructions to scort bim outside the grounds, which they bd. This time he was firmly admonished that he must not come back. There was a report that he had secretly placed agents in the betting ring, who were engaged in making a book, but this report was denied by the Washington Park officials. No furby the Washington Fark officials. No further trouble is expected from him.

The races at Washington Park to-day were run over a track deep in mud. Lucien Appleby, tavorite for the mile and a sixteenth race, was beaten a neck by Schwalbe, well ridden by Wilson. Sylvia Talbot and Pirate were Wilson's other winning mounts.

GOSSIP OF THE QUARTER STRETCH. Muddy Going of Yesterday Caused Perplexity Among Bettors, Notes.

Whenever it rains or whenever the local race tracks are the least bit muddy or slow, a a certain contingent in the crowd is always apparent, ready to play some of the get of Pirate of Penzance or Lamplighter. In fact, the veriest dog ever begotten by Pirate of Penzance is sure to receive some support in heavy going in heavy going.

This instinct on the part of the betters was apparent yesterday, when De Reszke received a mild play after he had gone up to 20 to 1. The tendency towards horses of the pesigrees named seems more pronounced on the local courses than on any track in the neighborhood—and this is probably due to the victories, at long oids, of descendants of the sires named last senson.

Pirate's Daughter was rather a sensational race last year over a sloppy track, very similar to that which prevailed yesteriny, the Lefford was favorite in the betting and Daughter was 15 to 1. Ghio's hilly led to the puddock, where the favorite overtook her. Then Walsh let up on the Fizer mare. Pirate's Daughter mande a last spurt and won by a head.

Everyhody in the west end of the grand stand thought the race was all over when Leeford passed Daughter. When the latter's number went up a howl arose from lettors in that section of the stant. Yet Ghio's filly undouttedly wen by a good margin.

Jack Young won a couple of his races last

Gin.

Jack Young won a couple of his races last year at long odds—once heating Avoid over a slow track at one mile, when 12 to 1 was freely laid against him. Sallor's Dream won a stake at long odds last season, Several other instances occurred where Lampignier or Fenzance horses scored. The result has been a play here among the horses of that generation ever since.

Mistic developed an unexpected fondness for the sloppy going yesterday. On the strength of her race behind Broodley-far back, at that-if was not thought that she would be able to do much in the slush yesterday. Her last race put her well up, however, or rather her race before last.

She was second choice in the betting, with Lou Beach a hor favorite. Hot for such a bunch as was in the second race. She was bunched about in the crowd and finished back in the hist division.

Mistic, on the contrary, ran an entirely different race from her last out in the going. She simply spread-capled her field and had a lead of ten lengths at one stage. Though clearly tring at the end, she hung on long chough to win by a wide margin.

None of the Bobby Beach bunch have yet shown any approach to May Beach had builting. Quite a little output of the former sprinter's offspring have appeared on the local and Chicago tracks, but they have yet to attain to any point near their relative's level.

Montgomery's ability seems to be proven fairly well by the fact that he has a draw Bear Creek, Uncle Bill and several others have appeared here and made efforts to do great things on the local track-all without success, however,

Athena certainly relished the sloppy going yesterday. The Hayes filly came through the stretch as if she was running over a hard track, and the time for the four and ene-half furiongs was quite good, considering the condition of the going. Her first our promised nothing, though on a different track. And yesterday betting indicated where she was expected to finish.

Baronet was considerably the best in the Baronet was considerably the best in the race. But his victory was due as much to his possessing a longer masal appendage than Golden Giltter, as to any under effects on the part of F. Smith. This young nearo is most leisurely in his movements and transplants this peculiarity to his effects in getting to work.

Had he started riding Baronet somewhat carlier, he would have won by quite a margin. As it was he won by the grace of Providence. The fact that Welckart stopped riding for an instant in the stretch, to slance back over Golden Giltter's rear, at the following field, gave Barenet an opperiumly to make up a little ground. Then he overhauled the leader and won.

CHECK MORGAN MAY WIN. Rogers' Filly Looks Well in the Third Race at Fair Grounds.

Race at Fair Grounds.

On the strength of previous performances over a slow and lumpy track. Check Morgan looks like a good bet in the third race at the Fair Grounds this afternoon. The Gymast filly ran a most creditable race June 6 on a track which was sticky and lumpy—as the course promises to be today in case of fine weather.

On that eccasion she heat J. W. O'Neal at even weights, each packing 100 pounds. O'N al don't seem to like that extra half furlong over the even five, it is true; but he ran a good enough race on that occasion to stamp Morgan as a good performer to be about in out. She was going away at the end, and the "bituminous macadam" of that day seemed to her liking.

Wreath of Ivy won her last out in handy fashion. She should be second. St. Agnes was coming fast in the last race of the pair, carrying four pounds more than the Henry of Navarre filly, but F. Smith, who rode lyy, was apparently lost in admiration of the fact that he was about to win a race, when opposite the paddock, and could have been further ahead at the end had he hustled his mount more. So Ivy will likely finish ahead of Agnes to-day.

In the feature event of the card, Colonel Maginn's handcapping has brought the bunch into close juxtaposition. Like most of the problems he furnishes, trisecting an angle would be an easy thing in solution by comparison. Kaffir looks best of the bunch, however.

comparison. Kaffir looks best of the bunch, however.

Kaffir ran a good race resterday. The form doesn't show it, but he did, just the same. Lowe awoke to the fact that he was in a horse race about the time that he struck the stretch; then he called on the Hanover horse. Kaffir finished a good enough third to justify his selection today—leaving his victory over Taby Tosa recently entirely out of the question.

The gray Le Premier gelding ought to be in second position. Jack Young may have improved since his last out and ought to give Taby a hard battle for the place. The veteran W. B. Gates appeared to get a hard kick at the post yesterday and should be the sole contender outside of the money. But it would be folly for any one to attempt to predict just what Gates is likely to do.

Orleans may win the fifth. This is a sell-ing affair, but it looks like one of Maginn's problems. Lynch is fond enough of heavy going to relish getting second money, while Countess Clara ought to be third, at least, Old Benham, that uncertain quantity of a year ago, will make ha fifteenth or six-teenth debut in the same race—his first ap-pearance of this year. His gray hairs, figuratively speaking, should entitle him to respect, but not to a bet.

Eliza Dillon may improve on her last race and win the sixth event. Her race behind The Wizard last week was a grewsome affair—quite a little tragedy in liself. She is in with light weight over a distance—and light weight should help under the conditions likely to prevail to-day. Neversuch will likely be second and Margie S. may get third money.

and is a respectable enough matron to be backed for place. Be True may be third.

backed for place. Be True may be third.

It is a choice of evils in the first race. About the best way to select a winner here is to adopt the method credited to the fair sex—that of sticking a plin through the programme. This ferminine method should be departed from, however, after making the selection, by then failing to place a bet on the event. This is likely to be the most profitable policy. Meneris locks the least likely to lose here, with Getchel, of suggestive name, second, and Little Pirate third.

POLICE CHIEF TO FIGHT.

Walter Montgomery of Greenview to Buttle Joe Curtain Thursday. Walter Montgomery, Chief of Police of Greenview, Ill., will appear in the semiwind-up of the West End Club's boxing show fairly well by the fact that he has a draw with Rube Ferns to his credit. He has been communicating with Manager Haughton for several weeks on the subject of a bout here, and the latter decided to try him out this week several weeks on the subject of a bout here, and the latter decided to try him out this week.

Jee Curtain, who will be his opponent, is a husky enough customer and has a good record in semiwind-ups, with several good main events on the list. He has often fought in the East and appeared in some good aghts. Inasmuch as Montgomery is an unknown factor, save for the bout with Ferns, it appears as if Curtain had the edge in experience, at least.

Young Kid McCoy and Andy Bezenah will the up in the preliminary, McCoy having been substituted for Cotton Billiter. They will battle at 127½ pounds. This is probably the first time such a weight has ever been agreed upon in the ring.

Last week the pair were wrangling over the weight question, one wanting 127, the other 128 pounds. Haughton, who was in an adjoining room at the club, heard the tumult and his ire was stirred. Rushing into the room he shook a reproving finger at the men, exclaiming in high falsetto:

"Do you fellows tink you're getting matched for the championship? You just split that weight and put it at 127½.

The men will met at that figure accordingly.

Walsh expects to turn the tables on Schreck in this boul-or, rather, he hopes to make such a decisive showing that there will be no possibility of the Cincinnati man getting the verdict.

Baker's entry, Gaslighter, is worth a bet in the second race. His owner is said to have been rather dissatisfied with the way the 2-vear-old was handled in his last race. He is in with a lot of poor enough racers, none of which is likely to even win the Brooklyn or Suburban, and the Lamplighter colt should win. Kitty G. ran a good race
